Dr Ray Bakke

Ray Bakke is renowned as a minister and educator who is devoted to helping the church love the cities as God loves them. Cities and leaders all over the world have benefited from his mentoring. Bakke is author of Street Signs: A New Direction in Urban Ministry and two urban ministry classics: The Urban Christian and A Theology as Big as the City. He is also author of The Expanded Mission of City Center Churches and A Biblical Word for an Urban World. Ray Bakke founded International Urban Associates (IUA) in 1989. IUA animated a network of more than 100 urban-based church and missions leaders in some of the world's largest cities.

Pastor Ali Pektas

Batikent Protestant Church
Ankara, Turkey

In most Muslim nations, sharing the gospel is forbidden. But observers believe that Turkey--where the New Testament church flourished--may be the key to reaching all of the Middle East. The first time that Ali Pektas had an encounter with Jesus Christ was in Mecca, Saudi Arabia--the spiritual heart of Islam.

"I was working in Saudi Arabia and joined a hajj, a Muslim pilgrimage to Mecca--without being in any way religious. It was the first time in my life that I prayed," says Pektas, who comes from Malatya in central Turkey.

"One night [during the hajj] I had a dream. I saw Jesus, and He was very bright and reached out to embrace me. He then touched my forehead and said, 'You belong to Me.'"
